RUDOLPH THE RED-NOSED REINDEER Johnny Marks 1949

Mr. Marks' brother in law, Robert May, wrote a little book about Rudolph in 1939, published by Montgomery Wards. One of the earliest treatises on bullying. . .look how easily the reindeers changed their tune about Rudolph when one influential guy saw Rudolph's value. . .So there!!!

(1st sung not	e:A)	F/	(G7/	Dm/	C/
	You kn	ow Dasł	ner & [Dancer	& Prance	r & Vixen	;
	F/	G7/	Dn	ነ/ (C/
	Comet	& Cupic	l & Do	nner &	Blitzen.
		n/ F			D7/		G7/
	But, do	you red	all, the	e most f	amous re	eindeer of	f all?
С						G7
Rudolph, G7	the rec	lnosed r	eindee	er, had a	a very shi C	ny nose,
And if you	ı ever s	saw it, yo	ou wou	ıld ever	n say it gl	ows. G7
All of the G7	other re	eindeer,	used t	to laugh	ı & call hi	m names C	; C7
They'd ne	ever let	poor Ru	idolph	, join in	any reinc	leer gam	es.
F		С		G7		С
Then one	foggy	Christma	as Eve	e, Santa	came to	say:
G				D7		(G 7
"Rudolph	with yo	our nose	so bri	ght, wo	n't you gu	uide my s	leigh tonight?"
С							G7
Then how G7	the re	indeer lo	oved h	im, as t	hey shou	ted out w	rith glee, C
	the Re	dnosed	Reind	eer, you	ı'll go dov		Ory!" Repeat song
	the RN	l Reinde	er , yoı	ı'll~go~	down in h
Am C	C7	D7 Dm	F	G7
					LZ 1:	2/12/16	