

SCOTCH AND SODA

Unknown songwriter

"Scotch and Soda" was discovered by one of the Kingston Trio, Dave Guard. Guard was dating a woman whose parents, had heard it in a Phoenix, Arizona hotel piano lounge in 1932 while on their honeymoon. Liking it so much, they had the piano player write it down for them so it would be "their song." Although it is credited to Guard, the trio never discovered the real songwriter.
