

RED SAILS IN THE SUNSET

Written in 1935 by Hugh Williams and Jimmy Kennedy, the latter a lyricist from Northern Ireland; the song is the inspiration for Northern Ireland's annual Red Sails Festival. Kennedy also wrote "Harbor Lights" and the Hokey Pokey, though he has the rights to the H.Pokey only because of an out-of-court settlement. . . .who knew??

LZ 4/6/16

Intro: 1,2,3,4 1,2,3,4 D7//// Am//// D// G°// G////

G// Bm // Dm C// Cm// G
 Red sails in the sunset, way out on the sea;

D7 Am D// G°// G
 Oh, carry my loved one, home safely to me.

G// Bm// Dm C// Cm // G
 She sailed at the dawning, all day I've been blue.

D7 Am D// G°// G
 Red sails in the sunset, I'm trusting in you.

C// Am// G C// D// G// G7//
 Swift wings we must borrow, make straight for the shore.

C// Am// G A7/ D// D7//
 We marry tomorrow, and you go sailing no more;

G// Bm// Dm C// Cm// G
Red sails in the sunset, way out on the sea;

D7 Am D// G°// G
Oh, carry my loved one, home safely to me.

C// Am// G C// D// G// G7//
 Swift wings we must borrow, make straight for the shore.

C// Am// G A7/ D// D7//
 We marry tomorrow, and you go sailing no more;

G// Bm// Dm C// Cm// G
 Red sails in the sunset, way out on the sea;

D7 Am D// G°// G// (G°// turnaround 1st time)
Oh, carry my loved one, home safely to me. (G// 2nd time)

